To Whom This May Concern

I have been asked to recommend Greg Jameson. I can do so both as a colleague and a client.

I have known Greg Jameson for many years. We are both members of Toastmasters International and we collaborate on many business issues. He serves as a technical advisor for my businesses and I can always trust that he will complete what he sets out to do.

What sets Greg apart from most other subject matter experts that I know is that Greg can clearly explain complex technical ideas, even to novices. His presentations are always both fun and educational. His audiences always appreciate his insights. His books are well-researched and on point.

Greg uses his vast experience to includes stories of his many successes and even his failures. In his presentations, he combines that with clear graphics to help his audience comprehend technically challenging issues.

Greg is an authentic presenter who is well qualified to enlighten people to the importance of influence marketing. In the age of social media, email, websites and mass communication, I heartily recommend Greg as a first choice to present his in depth knowledge in a comprehensive and caring manner to any organization.

With great respect,
