

To whom it may concern:

It is my honor to recommend Greg Jameson in the role of teacher / trainer. Investing nearly 30 years in the corporate world, I value knowledge + personality from leaders and presenters alike. Greg demonstrates these characteristics.

Greg's earliest experience in the world of technology is a valuable treasure. His background has similarities to Bill Gates! Greg has remained in the forefront of new technologies and techniques for communicating with a target audience. Greg Jameson understands and utilizes the power of story in communicating a powerful message.

Please contact me should you desire additional information or feedback.

Sincerely,

Gregory K. Hernandez
